Editorial Board 2009

Editor-in-Chief

Electra Gamón Fielding, University of Utah

Electra Fielding graduated from Utah State University with a BA ('96) in Spanish, and with an MA ('99) from the University of Utah in Spanish Literature with emphasis in 19th Century Peninsular. She is currently pursuing a doctoral degree at the University of Utah in Early Modern Studies. Her research interests include female picaresque novel, Catalan literature and language, and postcolonialism. She has been a member of the UFLR editorial board since 2007.

Literary Editors

Brenda Lake, University of Utah

Brenda L. Lake is from Mexico and is currently in her last year of coursework in the Spanish PhD program with emphasis on Latin American Literature in the Department of Languages and Literature at the University of Utah. Her academic interests include the analysis of novels and short stories by Mexican women writers of the 20th Century, combined with postcolonial and gender studies. Brenda has contributed as an editor in the UFLR editorial board in two different occasions, and will act as the UFLR editor-in-chief for the 2010 publication.

Gerry Esplin, University of Utah

Gery Esplin graduated from the University of Oregon with a BA ’68) in Spanish, and has an MBA (’84) from the University of Utah. She is currently completing a doctoral degree at the University of Utah in Spanish Literature with an emphasis on culture and literature of the Andes region of South America. Her doctoral dissertation focuses on identity construction in hybrid communities.

Dolores F. Jasmer, University of Utah

Dolores F. Jasmer graduated with a Bachelor of Arts from Weber State University in 2000 and with a Master of Arts from the University of Utah in 2008. She has been a Spanish Instructor at Weber State University since Fall of 2000. Her literary interests include Postcolonial and Indigenous writings.

Departmental Affiliation

Department of Languages and Literature, University of Utah
Financial Source

Publishing Council at the University of Utah Chronicle Office
240 Union Building
Salt Lake City, UT 84112

Webmaster:

Electra Gamón Fielding

Founder:

Bel-Ami Jean de Montreux